of Bassard and Emmet streets.

That frame of pictures exhibited in Wortley's window, is a model of beauty and perfection. They were made by Waterman, the popular photographer.

The Young Ladies' Prayer meeting at